THE PRESIDENT'S LETTER by Sherry Arigo

Here we are at the end of the year getting ready to have our Christmas/Awards Party. 'Can't believe the year went by so fast. But it certainly was a fun one, but by no means is it over yet.

On Halloween night several of us went to the Bonefish Grill for complimentary appetizers and drinks and had a great time. Check out the pictures on our website, the costumes were pretty darn good for a bunch of old people.

A few days later we went to Atlantic City, NJ for Kerbeck's "Toys for Tots". We traveled along the NJ Expressway with 600 other vettes. My John had to test the speed of our vette by going 120 mph and believe it or not, cars were going past us and made us look like we were sitting still. We all ended up at Kerbecks for lunch and a lot of door prizes. Our lucky Frank Cimba won the prize of his life (other than Debbie, of course), one of the original bumpers from the 2004 Lemans race held in Paris, in which the corvette won. He even brought the entire bumper to our November meeting to show off his prized possession. Heck, it was even autographed. I think Frank is still beaming from ear to ear. It couldn't have happened to a better guy. Congratulations, Frank, and our condolences go out to Debbie.

On November 16th, Joyce Angell thought she died and went to heaven because she saw 'Elvis'. That's right, twenty of us went to the Forest Diner in Ellicott City for dinner and an Elvis impersonator show. It was a fantastic evening. Elvis was great...but it got even better when he sang to Joyce and hugged and kissed her. To tell you the truth, I thought she wasn't going to let him go! She had him in a bear hug- yeah that's right, our sweet, innocent Joyce wouldn't let go of the "King"!! Then he sang, "Please Release Me, Let Me Go", then she let go. 'Got to watch those innocent ones.

On January 20th, the Activities Committee will meet at my house to plan events for 2007. Even if you didn't sign up for the committee, plan on joining us with your ideas and suggestions. We'll all go to Chevy's for dinner after the 3:00 meeting.

John and I want to wish all of you a very Merry Christmas and a Happy Hanukkah. I want to thank you for allowing me to be President of your club (even though nobody else wanted the job)! I have truly enjoyed every minute of it and look forward to next year.

Happy Holidays from our house to your house.

Get Ready, Get Set, Go Vette,

Sherry
