THE PRESIDENT'S LETTER by Sherry Arigo

We had our first meeting of 2007 with a great turnout of members. I guess everyone is anxious to get ready for the spring season and get those corvettes out from under the dust covers.

On January 20th, we had our Activities Committee meeting at my house. And what a full house I had! There were about 18 of us discussing where to go and what to do. Everyone came up with some great ideas. We tried to do a variety of things that would interest everyone. We are doing a Dinner Theatre, going over to Kent Island for a day of visiting Rodger's car showroom and Frank's garage, then -you guessed it- off to eat! Our Niagara Falls/Toronto trip will be June 16-23rd. Our own Dave Dickens grew up there and wants to give us the "tour". We also have a Pennsylvania weekend trip planned for July 21-22. Our picnic is August 5th at the Angell's home. Of course, we can't forget OC, which will probably be Oct 12-14 (we will know in June what the exact date is). And since we had such a nice time in Atlantic City at Kerbeck's, we're going to do that again as well. And to think, these are just the overnights, I haven't even mentioned the Sept 22 Navy Football game and tailgate, along with our dinners, brunches and other events in between.

One thing I found out at the meeting was that Frank Cimba races at Bud's Creek. Barry Kohan is going to check into getting a group together to go watch Frank do his thing. We will need cheerleaders in skimpy outfits, anyone interested? Second thought, never mind, that just brought a terrible picture to my mind.

As I mentioned at the January meeting, the club is hosting a bowling party including dinner on Sunday, February 18th at Annapolis Bowl on Generals Highway from 3:00-6:30 PM. You had to attend the January meeting or the February meeting in order to sign up to go. This will be free to members only in appreciation for all of the hard work you put into the club all year long. However, if you sign up to go and don't show up, there will be a $25 per person fee. Included are shoes, bowling, prizes (watch out, you never know what you might win), cheese trays, vegetable trays, cold cuts, meatballs, wings, macaroni salad, cole slaw, soda and dessert. There will be a cash bar. I'm sure in the past we have all been on bowling leagues, so now we get to strut our stuff. It's okay if you make a fool of yourself, no one will notice (yeah, right). It should be a lot of fun, so come to the February meeting to sign up. (you don't have to bowl if you don't want to or if your body is still aching from your last game 20 years ago).

On February 10th at 4:00, I will be holding the Shows/Rallye Committee meeting at my house. I will be sending an e-mail to remind those of you who signed up. We will be going over the details of the events. Everyone interested is welcome to join us, even if you didn't sign up. Since I don't do windows or meals, we will be going out to eat afterwards, so please bring your spouse along.

I am really looking forward to a busy fun filled year..hope you are too!

Get Ready, Get Set, Go Vette,
Sherry
