President's Report

Twenty people participate in the Columbia Parade and on to Bullock's Restaurant. We had a wonderful time.

Purchase of Corvette Annapolis Flags for our cars was discussed.

Sport Chevrolet Show was rainy but successful. Registration brought in $600 and the Silent Auction brought in $2400. Thanks to everyone who worked so hard.

May Minutes: Discussed and approved.

Treasurer's Report: Given by Anita Snyder and accepted.

Governor's Report: Steve Johnson gave an update on upcoming events:

To save money, NCCC has discontinued the annual mailing of packets including the calendar booklet.

The Ripken weekend was a great success and our club earned a significant number of points which will help the club secure good dates for our shows.

Joyce Angell and Shannon Shephard were awarded shirts for the NCCC 2006 Rallye winners. Kathy Barney was awarded a patch.

Visitors: Keith Gethers has a 1972 Coupe

New Business:

Elaine Phillips has accepted the authorship of our Meet the Members column for our newsletter.

Charlie Parsons donated a $250 Racing Store gift certificate to our club to purchase items for our future shows.

Corvette FYI: Joe Barney talked about the grading of ballots at our show. He felt that the classifications were difficult to assess and cars were being placed incorrectly. A committee will be formed to study this challenge.

Tech Talk: Frank Cimba discussed the extra performance available by installing a Cold Air Kit in your car. He also discussed the upcoming "Muscle Car Mania" event at Capital Raceway on Sunday, July 29.

50/50 Drawing: Bill Baton won the raffle and Dean Moore won the Sport Chevrolet shirt.

Meeting Treats: Provided by Chuck and Vivian Claypool

Meeting Adjourned at 8:25 P.M.
