President's Report

The President reported that D&O Insurance has been purchased and Corvette Annapolis is fully covered.

In the January there will be committee meetings at the Arigo home to solicit ideas and plans for each committee. A sign up board was circulated for members to volunteer for committees for the 2008 calendar year. In addition to our normal committees we will be adding a new Teching and Classification Committee.

Steve Kennedy has volunteered to be the Webmaster for next year.

The club will create a photography committee to chronicle our activities. At this time Herb Novitsky, Paul Stephens and Barry Kohan have volunteered but we do need more committee members. At the bottom of each activity sign up, there will be space for any club member to volunteer to be the photographer for that particular event.

The Green Turtle Show was a great success with 140 cars. This may have been the largest show we have ever put on. Thanks to: Pete Klein, Charlie Parsons, Debbie Cimba, Carroll Hynson, Anita Snyder, Susan Davis, Jim DeSarno and all club members who helped in any way.

Thanks to Linda Striegel for planning the dinner trip to the Mountain Gate Restaurant in Thurmont.

September Minutes: Discussed and approved.

Treasurer's Report: Given by Anita Snyder and accepted.

Vice President Report: Jim gave a primer on the difference between NCCC points and Club points, told us how to earn each and asked that when registering, we place both names and both NCCC numbers on the registration form to maximize the club's point accumulation.

Governor's Report: Steve informed us that the 2008 NCCC Membership cards will be mailed from the National Headquarters. The packet will include a card that must be returned if you want a 2008 NCCC Rule Book. Corvette Annapolis received all of the event dates that we requested for 2008. The East Region Spectacular at Ripken Stadium will be either May 17-18 or August 30-31, 2008

Visitors: Mack and Delores Foster. Mack has a 2007 Monterey Red and Delores has a 2008 Machine Silver

New Cars: Sandy Cawthon has a new 2008 Red Metallic

New Business: Joyce Angell reported that Shannon will be participating in the Corvette Idol Competition on Friday night in Ocean City at the Holiday Inn Ballroom. The winner will be announced at the Awards Ceremony on Saturday night. A motion was made, seconded and voted to donate $100 in Shannon's name to the competition.

Corvette FYI: Joe Barney gave an interesting presentation on the history of Route 66 and the connection with Corvettes from the 1960-1964 television show Route 66.
